

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

2 October 1979

STAT

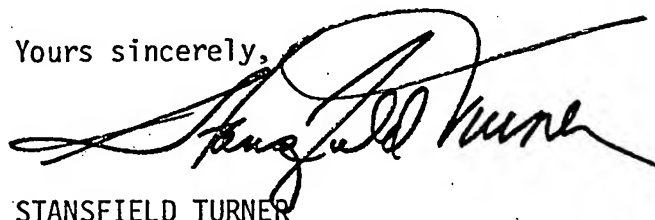

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

STAT

This letter is to attest to the character and capabilities of [redacted] presently of Washington, D.C. I have known [redacted] for the past two years and watched his work at [redacted] in Washington, D.C., on a regular basis. I have been most impressed by both his attitude and ability in all aspects of his work in the athletic department of the Club. I particularly have noted his ability to anticipate needs and to be forehanded so as to fulfill his responsibilities to the best advantage. He is consistently cheerful, energetic, and anxious to be helpful. I recommend him for future employment wherever someone with potential for growth, full reliability, and keen enthusiasm is needed.

STAT

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER

STAT

Mailed to:

[Redacted box for mailing address]